

In Conjunction with the Friends of Leatherhead Parish Church

PIP BURLEY PRESENTS

“The Golden Age of Song”

Celebrating the lives and work of two of the greatest songwriters who ever lived

Parish Church Hall Leatherhead at 7.30pm

FRIDAY, 25 OCTOBER

Tickets £15

Pip Burley, TV Producer and Composer, pays tribute to the lives, words and music of Richard Rodgers and Hoagy Carmichael – two men who made a unique contribution to the Great American Songbook during the first half of the 20th century.

Songs featured include:

My Resistance is Low, Stardust, Lazy River, Skylark, There is nothing like a dame, Manhattan, The Lady is a Tramp, Mountain Greenery, My Funny Valentine, Two Sleepy People, Lazybones, Georgia on my mind, The Nearness of You ... and many, many more

Come and enjoy their beautiful songs - as fresh and inspiring today as when they were first written - and hear about the triumphs and tragedies of these musical geniuses who cast their spell on us all. Accompanied by slides and videos of their lives and music and occasional illustrations on the piano.

Wine or soft drinks included in the ticket price and served during the interval

Proceeds to be shared by Friends of Leatherhead Parish Church and St Mary's Church, Headley Octagon Appeal

Please complete and return to Jackie Hampton at Amberleaf, 34 St Marys Road, Leatherhead, KT22 8EY
