

MULTI-COLOURED SWAP SHOP

Saturday, 6 April 2019 – Parish Church Hall at 7.15 pm

You are invited to spend a relaxed evening amongst friends, with stimulating conversation, complementary music and an opportunity for a cathartic swap shop. Do bring along your own choice of drinks and glasses. We offer a convivial supper, prepared by our marvellous team of volunteers.

*Chicken Pasta Bake (or Vegetarian alternative) with green salad and French bread
Selection of delicious desserts
Coffee and Chocolate Mints
(accompanied by special guest performance by Hedley Kay)*

Swapshop? Please bring with you between two to four good-as-new items you no longer want but might be 'just the thing' for someone else. It's so much easier to part with treasures when you know it's for a good cause. During the evening the items will be for swapping, at intervals, for £2 each. (There'll be no raffle; with swaps you get to choose your own prizes.) The proceeds will go towards the cost of maintaining Leatherhead's mediaeval Parish Church.

Any "good as new" items are welcome but here are some ideas:

- ✚ Any unsuitable gifts you received at Christmas.
- ✚ A special book you enjoyed so much, someone else should read it.
- ✚ The DVD that's still in its cellophane wrapper
- ✚ Picture that won't fit in the wall space available.
- ✚ The top that doesn't fit - worse still it's unworn and has its original label.
- ✚ Chocolates that are too much a temptation to have within reach.
- ✚ Sheepskin mittens when your real need is for smart leather gloves.
- ✚ Smart leather gloves when your real need is for sheepskin mittens.
- ✚ Valuable ornament you 'inherited' from Auntie Maude.
- ✚ Aftershave/Toiletries/perfume that doesn't suit you

Items remaining at the end of the evening will be donated to local charity shops; so everyone wins.
Tickets are £18 each - why not make up a table of 6 or 8 friends?
